

Curious and Creative Chameleon

I am excited to try new ideas and different possibilities.

I ask questions – I want to know how, why, what, where and who.

I work towards solutions by analysing problems and forming strategies.

I use my imagination when I'm learning.

I am open minded and like to find out about other people and their points of view.